

2025 LG TV New Product Intro for Distribution Accounts and Dealers

Details

2025 is a new business year and LG has an updated product lineup that is already getting lots of industry press and influencer attention!

To learn what all the excitement is about, choose "just 1" of 6 available, 1-hour sessions to learn what the 2025 LG models offer over their predecessors, and what the step-ups are as you go series to series. You should learn what you can highlight to motivate your customers to purchase higher end LG models. Always a good thing!

LG WebOS and AI are updating to make TV usage easier and more robust, and might be able to save you a service call on a busy weekend by helping the customer. We will explain how during this webinar.

Lots to cover but we will keep it around an hour long, so invest some time and get up to speed on LG TV to hit the ground running in 2025!
